“Avondale is smack in the middle of mushroom country. Mushroom production — and the compost involved in mushroom production — can smell like a loaded baby diaper.”

— Mac and Cheese Blog

There are five Avondale, Pennsylvanias. The barn is located near the one in southern chester county, population 955.

It is home to nearly 1.8 toilets per household, and is known for Thomas Eakins nudes, Avondale brown stone, and the aromatic terroir of the “Mushroom Capital of the World”.
